Unfinished Business:

Concert in the Park Series: June 8th Concert

Grupp inquired if someone was confirmed to play at 5:00 pm. Holslin stated he would contact Dan Bakken. Grupp stated the music and food are set to start at 5:00 pm and the Lions have been notified. Holslin stated Dan Bakken can do the June and July concerts for $150.00 per time but is willing to negotiate. Heinz stated the trailers and electric are reserved as well. Grupp stated a warm-up band is need for the August 10th concert yet.

Recap of Bike Rodeo

Grupp stated there were about 30 kids, we are good on helmets, need the teenager size, the weather was cold, inquired if the event should be moved to the school. Vetrano stated the school is more visible, but likes the park. Grupp inquired if flyers were distributed at the school, Heinz stated yes. Grupp stated the event needs to be advertised more. Heinz stated it was posted on both of the reader boards in town. Ramthun inquired if attendees come from all over. Grupp stated mostly Hanover, FYCC hosted their event the week prior and posted garage sale like signs in yards. Heinz stated could do the same and keep them generic to re-use each year. Grupp stated 7 were going on Facebook, will need to get more streamers and chalk. Vetrano gave a shout out to the Grupp family and Alexs girlfriend for the great set-up. Grupp inquired if any changes need to be made to the route. Holslin suggested the mount and dismount area.

New Business:

Bike Racks

Heinz stated and EDA member point out there are no bike racks at City Hall or at the parks. Ramthun stated there are bike racks at all the parks accept Bridges.
